

(print on letterhead)

Biographical Sketch
Joseph J. Freelance

Joseph J. Freelance is a principal in the firm of Freelance Associates, a Bozeman, Montana graphic design firm that specializes in corporate communications projects. Representative clients of Freelance Associates include: (name), (name), (name), (name), (name), and (name). Projects include advertisements, annual reports, company brochures, product sales literature, package design, Web-site design, and corporate identification.

Prior to founding Freelance Associates in 1993, Mr. Freelance was Senior Art Director at Big Sky Advertising where he worked primarily on the (name) and (name) accounts. Previously, Mr. Freelance worked for the Billings, Montana, advertising agency of Blank/Blank/Blank, as well as several smaller agencies. Corporate experience includes five years as graphic designer on the staff of Big Pit Copper, Incorporated.

Mr. Freelance's marketing communications experience covers a range from consumer expendables to financial services, with particularly strong expertise in natural resources.

Mr. Freelance's work has been cited for excellence by the following: Advertising Club of Bozeman (Bozie Awards); Montana Society of Advertising Arts (Monty Awards); The Greater Bozeman Chamber of Commerce (Booster Recognition); and Montana Roadways and Business Montana magazines.

Mr. Freelance is a 1987 graduate of the Inspired Institute of Design, Cutbank, Montana, where he is also currently Adjunct Professor of Advertising Art.

He is married, has two children and resides in suburban Deep Glen, Montana.